BETTER HALF'S PAY.
Should a Man Give a Salary to the Wife of His Bosom?
The Wife to Be Made Financially Independent.
"Evening World" Readers Take Part in an Interesting Discussion.

Readers of THE EVENING WORLD are invited to discuss in this column the subject, "Should Wives Receive Salaries?" The views of men and women alike are desired as to the desirability and practicability of regular money allowances to wives by their husbands, as the lawyers say, "to their own use and behoof."

Letters should not comprise more than two hundred words, should be written on only one side of the paper, and addressed to "Wife Editor, Evening World, Pulitzer Building, New York."

For Personal Expense.
Wives should have salaries. Every wife should have a weekly allowance or salary if she so chooses to call it; which she might save or spend as her fancy may dictate.

Pay It Out of the Taxes.
Should a wife receive a salary? By all means. The country, the State, the city or town should be so taxed as to pay every wife a salary. If she has children, $5 a month for each child up to twenty, which would be an even $100 a month—but she must take care of them herself.

A Right to the Husband's Earnings.
A wife should receive a salary only in one way, that is, what her husband makes. If her husband should get sick and not able to work, then it is right to help; but a wife has got enough to do to look after her household duties, and an honest man would not allow his wife to receive a salary.

WIVES AT DOMESTIC HELMS.
Theories as to the Proper Management of Husbands.
When a young married woman starts in life with the idea that she is to have things pretty generally her own way, that the movements of her husband are to be regulated by her orders, that his business and social affairs are to be under her supervision, she makes a mistake. A man won't be "managed" and a wife won't be "ruled" by a man.

ODD BITS OF CONTEMPORARY HUMOR.
Conductors Have to Take Chances.
I had ridden 200 feet on a Market Street car in Philadelphia and the conductor had not taken my fare, when the cable broke and the car came to a standstill, says the Brooklyn Free Press. Everybody got up and went out without saying a word, and as if the conductor had been expected, but being new to the business I asked the conductor:

Tricky Emphasis.
A woman had a pair of twin sons so closely alike in looks and voice that often, when she was not paying particular attention, she herself was liable to mistake one for the other, says London's The Times.

The Cleaner.
Tom O'Brien, the bunco man, who arrived from Europe yesterday in custody of Detective Kelly, is something of a wit, according to all accounts. It is said that while on the way over an elderly lady, not knowing who he was, confided to him that a great criminal was on board, and asked him if he did not think an outrage that they should have to travel on the same ship. "I do indeed, ma'am," replied O'Brien, "and but for circumstances beyond my control I would have sailed on this vessel."

Turning the Tables.
Several Tammany politicians, including Police Court Clerks Assistant Thomas P. Duncan and Dominick J. O'Farrell, sail on the Savannah steamship Tallahassee today for a month's visit in the South. According to all accounts, the object of their trip is health and rest, but that there is probability that the gentlemen will be among the most interested of the spectators at the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight at New Orleans.

Given Away.
Actor (as porter sees his trunk down—Good! Good! Best I've ever seen. Take it down and carry it up again.
Porter (in amazement)—Carry that trunk down an' carry it up, just for pleasure? Yer crazy.
Actor (in apparent surprise)—Don't be offended, my friend. I was pleased with the way you did your work, and I was only giving you an excuse.

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.
Fads, Fancies and Fashions That Delight the Gentler Sex.
No Economy in Cheap Kid Gloves—Multi-Colored Toilets Are Now the Rage—Something Pretty for Baby—Bright Ribbons Streamers Are Here Again.

There is absolutely no economy in buying cheap kid gloves, for even if they will go on, they will never look like anything but a counterfeit. One pair of kid gloves at $1.50 is worth a box of ancient dog or rat skin. With the very long sleeves now worn a one-ton glove will do well enough and may be bought for a dollar.

Plimmer Trying to Get on Another Match with Kelly.
One of the most important of the conditions that enter into the making of a match between pugilists is the question of weight. The stake and purse are, of course, of great moment to the fighter, but they are as a rule, and always are, carefully looked after as a means of gaining that end.

One-toned Toilets.
The rule any more. They are multi-colored—a girl in a blue dress dons a blue-yellow coat, a black hat with red roses climbing up in the air, and white kid gloves stitched with silver.

Some very sweet services are rendered by the new ubiquitous circles of Kings Daughters. Most of the good work is done Saturday, of which the following are but hints: Leading an interesting story to a class of children in the Blind Asylum; amusing a throng of children in the South. The theater is a favorite place for the future with crippled children; teaching an industrial class; rolling a foundation in a baby carriage over the laws; teaching poor children to read; minding a baby all morning in a day nursery; providing toys, books and games for deformed little boys and girls undergoing treatment in the surgical wards of charity hospitals; running errands; writing letters or reading the news for the poor, old, infirm or homes for the aged. In addition to this sympathetic work distribute the fruits, table delicacies, books, reading matter and little articles for personal use. Many of these lessons are so simple, and they teach the young compassion, contentment and love.

THE QUESTION OF WEIGHTS IN PRIZE-RING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Tommy Kelly, the Harlem Spider, and his challenger, Mike Plimmer, the English 110-pound pugilist, have been arriving over a match ever since Plimmer arrived in this country several months ago. They arrived at the stage of signing articles some time ago, but their agreement was subsequently cancelled, and they have not yet been able to get on a match.

Herbert Keiley—you will be glad to know—was very much impressed with "The Broken Seal," now at Palmer's. He saw the end of it, as he went to the theatre after the performance of "The Broken Seal." The Broken Seal is just the kind of play that would impress actors. They would call it "strong."

Miss Lillian Russell is at present rehearsing the first act of "Ernani" in which she is to appear at the McCallum theatre.

At the Thalia Theatre Karl was seen last night in a comedy by Von Kränitz called, "The Good Wife." The play is a very good one, and was very funny. The supporting company gave satisfaction.

EMMA EAMES'S THOUSAND-DOLLAR FEE FROM MRS. BRADLEY-MARTIN.
Miss Emma Eames has a truly artistic soul. She went to the proprietor of the St. James Hotel, where she stops, the other day, and asked him to give her a check for $1,000. She wanted to send the money to Boston. The proprietor gave her the check, and in return she handed him a brand-new, crisp, detachable thousand-dollar bill.

Charles Barton, business manager of the Casino, was in his office yesterday when he was approached by a very timid young man, who humbly and had finally made up his mind to speak.

It will be another case of embarrassment to the Casino, Monday night, Feb. 15. For last week the Casino was required to give up the opening of any importance. Next week this condition of things will be unchanged. On Feb. 15, the Casino will be required to give up the opening of any importance.

There will be an innovation in "A Temperance Town." Hoy's new farce, which will some day be produced at the Madison Square Theatre, will be given in a new form. It will be a farce, and it is about to be given in a new form. It will be a farce, and it is about to be given in a new form.

TOLDO BETWEEN THE ACTS. ONLY A SALARY FOR HEINTZ.
All That Will Be Left Him if Hagan's Bill Passes.

Tammany Hall, finding that all other means fail to dislodge its enemy, the Local Improvement party of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, has brought its biggest siege gun to bear on the works of Commissioner Heintz and his followers. It has procured to be introduced in the Legislature, by Senator Hagan, a bill which will render the Commissioner of Public Works, which takes away his title of Commissioner and his power of appointment, gives his appointments to the care of the Commissioner of Public Works and dubs him "Superintendent of Local Improvements."

This bill would deprive Commissioner Heintz of all real power and take from him all responsibility to the people from whom he derives his authority by election. With his power, patronage and responsibility would depart much of his political influence, and the people of the Annexed District, who for years have rebelled against Tammany Hall, might be again brought to recognize the local leader of the Wigwag, Henry D. Purroy.

This bill, introduced by Senator Hagan, is the bill which the leaders of the Citizens' Local Improvement party feared would fail when they read the letter sent by Mayor Grant to the Legislature, in which he said that he would not support the bill, and that he would not support the bill.

Herbert Keiley—you will be glad to know—was very much impressed with "The Broken Seal," now at Palmer's. He saw the end of it, as he went to the theatre after the performance of "The Broken Seal." The Broken Seal is just the kind of play that would impress actors. They would call it "strong."

TERRIBLE, INDEED.
Alarming After Effects of the Grip.
Weak Nerves and Weak Bodies by Thousands—How to Overcome the Weakening Effects.

There is no disease which leaves in its train so many weak, nervous, debilitated and discouraged sufferers as the Grip. Thousands who have had it have not recovered their old-time strength and vigor, and attend to their employment in a weakened and exhausted condition, feeling tired, languid and without vim and energy.

This is because the grip weakens the nerves, and this nervous weakness, if allowed to run, may result in serious nervous prostration, heart failure, paralysis of the brain.

This nerve and physical weakness following the Grip is a most dangerous condition to be in, and must be cured immediately to prevent serious or fatal results.

The great strengthening and invigorating medicine to take in such cases, and the attendant low blood, weak nerves, stomach, liver and kidney diseases, is Dr. Greene's Nervine. It will restore strength and health almost by magic. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1.00.

"Of all the medicines I have used, Dr. Greene's Nervine is the best. It has been the means of saving my life. Yes, I can say our lives, that of my dear husband as well. I thank Dr. Greene again and again for his grand medicine. Mrs. F. HEINTZ, 404 Bedford Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y."

How it has been done before this time, and it can therefore give this wonderful remedy the highest praise. The facts are these: I had the Grip, and I was almost prostrated, extremely nervous, limbs stiff in the joints, my bowels bloated, and my breathing was terrible. I could not sleep without almost losing my breath. In fact, I was almost a complete wreck, and could do but a little work of any kind. I commenced to take Dr. Greene's Nervine, and at the end of one week I had recovered in strength, my bowels were normal, and my mind was clear. I am able to do about a full day's labor.

The United States Government Both Endorses and Uses Royal Baking Powder.
Last year the Royal Baking Powder Co. sold to the United States Government over 80,000 pounds of baking powder—enough to supply both army and navy.
The last United States Government report shows Royal Baking Powder to be a cream of tartar powder superior to all others in purity and strength.
This purchase and this endorsement were made by the United States Government upon competitive tests of the various baking powders of the market.
